FR. RUDY'S REFLECTION: It might be difficult to admit, but the devil is all around us. How else do you explain the most horrific events of our history and the hate we see filling hearts that rage against humanity? This evil, these sins, are wide-ranging and seem unstoppable as they pervade our society and our individual lives. We, as children of God, recoil in horror and fear that this world is on a trajectory toward losing the battle for our souls as goodness, love, and mercy are being replaced with sinfulness, immorality, and egoism

Fr. Rudy Coaquira-Hijale,
MCCJ, pastor

that seem acceptable in lieu of our greatest virtues. St. John Vianney said, "Sin is the assassination of the soul."

On this Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we say goodbye to the season of Lent, the seven weeks of Easter, and the feasts of Pentecost, Holy Trinity, Ascension, and the Body and Blood of Christ. How fitting as we begin these summer months and continue our liturgical year that we consider the end of the third chapter of Mark as our Gospel today. It serves as a concrete reminder that if we walk with Jesus and follow His teachings, we will be armed with the tools He gave us "so that although our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day" (2 Cor 4:16). Jesus Christ gives us hope, a guarantee that all will be well, despite all we see and experience in this world. He is our surety— and we must have faith to live it.

Today's Gospel describes the various people who came to witness Jesus. Whatever their level of interest, concern, or malice, these people came together to evaluate and react for or against this amazing man in their midst who was turning lives upside down. In some ways, even today, people continue to assess the meaning of his life, death, and resurrection and the teachings that light the Christian faith—what Jesus means to all of us.

"There is no evil to be faced that Christ does not face with us. There is no enemy that Christ has not already conquered. There is no cross to bear that Christ has not already borne for us and does not now bear with us."—St. Pope John Paul II

HUNGER WALK: The results are in! We raised $3,427.00. The most we have ever reached at the Walk. Thanks to everyone in the parish community who participated in any way. Your support is greatly appreciated, making it much easier to serve the needs of neighbors in our area.

FATHER'S REMEMBRANCE: You may arrange to have your father, or influential man in your life, remembered at Mass on June 16th. Using envelopes at the door, write the name of the person you wish to have remembered, enclose a small donation and place in the collection basket.

THE NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE began traveling last week along four routes across the United States to ultimately converge on Indianapolis for the National Eucharistic Congress July 17-21. The St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Route of the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will be coming through the Archdiocese of Cincinnati July 1-8. Along the route, several of our parishes will be offering special opportunities for prayer and fellowship. On July 6, Archbishop Schnurr will preside at Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains at 10:00 a.m. followed by a Eucharistic Procession through downtown Cincinnati to a Eucharistic Festival on Fountain Square. All Catholics are encouraged to participate! For complete information, please go to www.JesusIsHere2024.org.
